

February 2007

Sodexo Appoints New Finance Director

Aidan Connolly has been appointed finance director of Sodexo UK and Ireland with immediate effect.

Aidan has a wide range of experience in finance and general management, working both in the UK and internationally. In his most recent role, as Finance Director of MyTravel UK, Aidan was senior member of the team responsible for reconstructing that business and returning it to profitability in one of the UK's largest ever corporate turnarounds.

Prior to this, Aidan was CEO and Group FD of Walker Greenbank PLC and has held directorships in a number of private companies in the UK, Europe and the USA.

Aidan is a graduate in Law from Liverpool University and trained as a Chartered Accountant, particularly specialising in taxation, in Price Waterhouse's London office.

Aidan is replacing Debbie White who has been appointed global projects director for Sodexo Alliance.

Ends