Sodexo appoints new MD for its prepared meals business

Sodexo has appointed Simon Scrivens as managing director of Tillery Valley Foods (TVF), the leading supplier of chilled and frozen prepared meals to the healthcare sector.

Simon has a general management background in both manufacturing and service businesses, and has extensive experience in food production, sales, and marketing. His career includes eight years with Perkins Foods, where he led the growth of their fresh foods division, trading with major UK retailers and food service operators.

On his appointment, Simon said "Sodexo has made a significant investment in TVF and I am excited about the opportunity to accelerate the company's growth and to firmly cement its position as one of the UK's top specialist manufacturers of high quality prepared foods."

TVF is based in Abertillery, South Wales, and employs 450 people.

Simon Scrivens will report to chief executive Philip Jansen.
